

CLIENT ALERT

Free Webinars Offered to Provide COVID-19 Guidance

The COVID-19 pandemic has created numerous challenges for employers, including local governments. We have been fielding numerous questions from our clients on a wide range of topics, including paid leave, safety procedures, meeting attendance, unemployment, e-learning, and more. As the daily press briefings from the president and the governor indicate, the situation continues to evolve, with these challenges likely remaining for months to come.

To help guide our clients through this period, Ottosen DiNolfo is offering free webinars this week tailored to the needs of emergency services, school districts, and local governments in general. Each webinar will be hosted through Zoom. Anyone can join the webinars using the meeting information below, either by internet or by phone. The webinars are scheduled for 90 minutes, with a significant portion dedicated to questions-and-answers. While each webinar has a different focus, most of the information presented will be the same, so feel free to attend any session that fits your schedule. Also, please share this information with others who might benefit from the webinars.

We hope you can join us for these informational sessions. Regardless, if you have any questions related to COVID-19 and your workplace, please do not hesitate to contact us.
